AVAs in the State of California Over the last 3 0 years, the federal agency has become stricter in following its criteria to delimit geographically distinctive areas with historical name recognition, less sympathetic to letting in wine- growers outside the proposed AVA boundaries without cause, and more systematic in how AVAs nest within one another.. Geographers are well engaged in the AVA establishment process and through this, contribute to the education of winegrowers, the trade, the government, and the public on place- based distinctiveness of wines.
